A fatal accident occurred vesterday morning on board the British bark Frederick. One of the ordinary seaman, named Edward Connell, aged 16 years, a native of Liverpool, was aloft at work under the main topmast cross-trees, when he lost his hold and fell, striking against the main top sail-yard, then on to the main sail, and finally into a ballast lighter which was lying alongside the vessel. When the unfortunate man was picked up he was dead. The body was brought on the shore and taken to the Hospital

From the Strails Times we learn that a Court of Inquiry was held at Singapore, on the 24th ultimo into the stranding of the British steamer Glancis Castle of Glasgow, Captain James Grain on a rect off the Natumas Islands on the 30th June last. Writing from Batoum on the 2nd June. Th

Times correspondent says :-In my last letter I gave a brief sketch of the positions held by the Turks, which, covered by the guerrilla forces under the command of the various Boys, render Batoum impregnable. To the former remarks may be added the following:

-Batoum can only be approached in three directions—the first and ensiest, along the shore from Kula: and the third by the Tchoruk Valley, on each of which routes there are many places where a few determined men can easily stop the advance of an army. The end and aim of the Russians in this direction is the acquisition of Batoum as a port for the Caucasus. They base their claim to it as being already the possessors of the greater portion of the old Georgian kingdom, to which it formerly belonged. The Russians say, "It would have been ours but for an oversight at the signing of the Treaty of 1828, and had Batoum Continuing our remarks upon the extension of been handed over to us then, no one, would have proign trade (says the Buston Advertiser) we thought of disputing our right, so why should now propose to call attention to the striking in- lall these objections be raised at the present crease in the export of domestics to China, and time?" SICKNESS IN THE RUSSIAN ARMY A medical correspondent of the St. Petersburg Exchange Gazette writes as follows from San Stefano:—Ten miles from San Stefano on the shore of the sea of Marmora, with a railway station at only a few yards' distance stands a hill crowned with a wood of laurels. From the summit of the hill there is a fine view of Constantinonle, while on the right San Stefano, so heantiful in the distance, can be seen. How defactory outlet for what they may produce in lightful this would be if ague and typhus were not raging all round! IMPERIAL QUARTO. MNGLISH AND CHINESE DICTIONARY.

WITH THE PUNTI AND MANDARIN PRONUNCIATION. An Anglo-Chinese Dictionary, published at the Daily Press Office, Hongkong,

For comprehensiveness and practical service this Work stands unrivalled. All the new words which the Chinese have to late years been compelled to coin to express the numerous objects in machinery, photography, telegraphy, and in science generally, which the rapid advance N.B.—All business communications should be here given in extense. Each and every word is 185 fully illustrated and explained, forming exercises for students of a most instructive nature. Both the Court and Punti pronunciations are given, the occents being earefully marked on the best DOUND VOLUMES of the China Overland principle hitherto attained. The typography displays the success of an attempt to make the Chinese and English type correspond in the size of body, thereby effecting a vast economy of 217107 space, achieving a clearness not previously. attained, and dispensing with those vest margins and vacant spaces which have heretofore characterized Chinese publications. For practical purposes the arrangement of the work is so complete, that a reference to its pages enables a person who understands English to communicate effectively with natives who understand nothing but Chinese. In this respect the work will be found indispensable to all Europeans residing in China, and to the natives themselves it explains subjects fully with which very few indeed of them are perfectly acquainted.

> in China it cannot but be invaluable occasion-To illustrate the vast scope of the work, the following facts are submitted for consideration :-Chalmers' Vocabulary contains about 16.000 Chinese characters, and Modhurst's English and Chinese Dictionary about 100,000, whilst this work contains more than 50,000 English words, and upwards of 600,000 Chinese characters. Again, despite all the grammare and other elementary works as yet published, the student of this difficult language absolutely requires examples to display the various appli-oations and equivalents of different words which bave one general meaning. Of these examples this work contains more than five times as many as any other Dictionary hitherto pub-It comprises upwards of two thousand large
